

Workshop

Latin America at a Crossroad

Tuesday 28/05, beginning at 1400: AULA MORISHIMA

Carmen Feijo, Posgrado de Economia, UFF (Nitéroi, Brazil) "Growth trajectories of Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Mexico: a comparative view through the lenses of the Framework Space device"

Juan-Gabriel Brida, GIDE, DEPT. Métodos Cuantitativos, UDELAR (Montevideo, ROU)
"Expectations and business decisions: macroeconomic implications for Uruguay (and Latin America)"
(with Bibiana Lanzillotta)

Celia Kerstenetzki, CEDE at IE/UFRJ, Rio de Janeiro, "Social progress (or regress) in Brazil during the XXI century"

João Basilio, IE at Universidade do Parana, Curitiba (Brasil), "Input-Output Networks and Structural Change in Latin America: the eternal trap".

Fabio Waltenberg, UFF, Niteroi, will chair and comment the session

Wednesday 29/05 beginning at 1600: AULA GOODWIN

Ignacio Perrottini, Posgrado de Economia, UNAM, Ciudad de México, on "Inflation targeting and export-led growth: A puzzling tradeoff in Latin America?" (with Nancy Muller)

Silvia London, IIES UNS, Bahia Blanca (Argentina), "Economic perspectives for Argentina from the concept of sustainable development"

Martín Puchet Anyul, Posgrado de economia UNAM, Ciudad de México, on "On and from Mexico: goods and services of the Common use for innovation. A necessary road to development with dignity"

Edgar Carrera, University of Urbino will chair and comment the session

May, 28-29th, 2019
Aule Morishima e R.M. Goodwin

Our workshop will have a sequel of a three-day workshop (on a separate program), focused on themes of Local Development and Tourism, which the above participants are expected to attend and play a competent role.